MAY BE ANNIHILATED

RUSSIAN ARMY OF TWELVE THOUSAND MEN HEMMED IN ON THREE SIDES.

HOLDING KUROKI IN CHECK

FATE OF MAIN RUSSIAN ARMY DEPENDS UPON SUCCESS OF ONE COLUMN.

Although there is still a lack of specific information regarding the exact situation in Manchuria, a London paper claims to have trustworthy information that detracts from the brilliancy of Kuropatkin's retreat. According to this paper, the Russian army is divided into five columns, one of which is at Tieling pass, the strategic position forty miles north of Mukden; another column is between Mukden and Tieling pass; the third is at Mukden itself, while the fourth, composed of 40,000 men, is trying to hold General Kuroki in check, twelve miles south of Mukden. Upon the success or defeat of this column depends the fate of the main Russian army, for its success will enable Kuropatkin to retire to Tieling pass unmolested, while its defeat would mean disaster to the Russians.

The main interest at present, however, centers upon the fifth Russian column, which is south of Kuroki's army and is surrounded on three sides by the Japanese, with little hope of effecting its escape. This column numbers 12,000 men and it looks as though they would all be killed or captured.

Details Entirely Lacking.

The Russian general staff, lacking details, is unable to speak authoritatively, while advices from Japanese sources are significantly lacking. It is established that the main Russian army is safely at Mukden and that the retreat was accomplished in comparatively good order in spite of the harassing Japanese, sodden roads and the fact that Kuropatkin was hampered by more than 12,000 wounded. There is nothing yet to indicate the exact whereabouts of the three Japanese armies.

Viceroy Alexieff reports that railway and telegraphic communication between Mukden and Harbin is uninterrupted. General Sakharoff reports that there was no fighting Thursday and while the outposts are still in contact they are not even exchanging shots. It seems to be established that Oyama's troops practically abandoned on Wednesday the attempt to head off Kuropatkin and that the last determined effort to bring the Russian commander to bay was made on Tuesday.

A detailed list of Russian losses is promised Saturday and it is expected that these losses will approximate 20,000 as against 30,000 for the Japanese. It is officially reported that Kuropatkin has not been wounded.

There is no news from Port Arthur. The latest dispatch from Mukden tells of heavy rains that have flooded streets and roads and stopped the advance of the Japanese armies.

Japanese eastern and southern armies, in fact quiet reigns over the whole front.

The Chinese population of Mukden is so far fairly orderly. The Chinese are suffering greatly and in the villages all around crops, cattle and poultry have been trodden down and killed. The Russians are endeavoring to pay for all damage, though this is often difficult, owing to the rapid shifting of the troops and the natives are always ready where possible to induce two or more commanders to pay for the same damage.

THE FINEST IN THE WORLD.

British Correspondent Pays High Tribute to Troops Under Oku.

London, Sept. 10.—The Times prints a dispatch dated at Peking from a correspondent lately with General Oku's army, which says:

"Liaoyang at sunrise on Sept. 4 presented a dismal spectacle. The Russian settlement was burning and overhanging with a pall of smoke. The town was not greatly damaged by the shell fire, but all the European shops and the wealthy Chinese residences had been sacked."

"The Japanese spoils of war were insignificant. They got no locomotives, which they urgently needed, and which would have been more valuable to them than artillery. The Japanese divisional commander attempted to pursue the Russians and managed to secure a bridge, but his troops were too fatigued to effect anything."

Fell Short of His Expectations.

The correspondent proceeds in a critical vein, promising that his information is somewhat incomplete owing to the great extent of the operations. He says that after what he read of Japanese tactics and strategy he is compelled to confess that what he saw in practice fell short of his expectations.

"My honest opinion," said the correspondent, "is that there was nothing strategically excellent in the handling of either army, though Kuropatkin can claim to have defeated the main object of the Japanese operations.

"The Russians obviously in their tactics cling to the cardinal error of over-manning the defensive positions, while the sole spirit of the Japanese tactics, as illustrated under Oku, was sledge hammer frontal attacks.

"I am satisfied that Oku commands the finest infantry in the world. I do not believe that any other army could in five days deliver eight unsuccessful infantry assaults against entrenched and still persevere."

ATTEMPT ABANDONED

YOAMA CEASES EFFORTS TO EFFECT THE ISOLATION OF KUROPATKIN.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—It seems to be definitely established that Field Marshal Oyama's tired troops practically abandoned on Wednesday the attempt to head off General Kuropatkin, and the latter's army has arrived safely at Mukden after frightful experiences in floundering through mud and mire over the mandarin road.

Some description of the scenes along the line of retreat are almost incredible. They tell how the men lay down in the mud and slept in a drenching rain and without shelter.

It is evident that the last determined effort of the Japanese to bring Kuropatkin to bay was made on Tuesday, but the Russian commander-in-chief faced about and two corps with artillery beat off the Japanese, while the remainder of the troops continued the march to Mukden. After that the Japanese could only hang to the flanks and try to shell the retreating columns from the hills.

The outposts are still in contact, but they are not even exchanging shots.

A late dispatch from Mukden describes the horrible plight of the tentless and shelterless soldiers.

About Fifty Thousand Slain.

The detailed statement of Russian losses, which, it is promised, will be issued Saturday, is awaited with intense interest. The general expectation is that the losses will approximate 20,000 as against 30,000 for the Japanese.

The work of burying the dead was left to the Japanese, but the task was almost impossible. The awful rains have handicapped the work of cremation on which the Japanese relied and only shallow trench burials were possible under the circumstances. Not only is this work one of the greatest difficulty, but is almost valueless from a sanitary point of view, the storms undoing it soon after it is accomplished.

"Everything now depends," says the paper, "on Meyendorff's ability to hold Kuroki in check, which thus far has been successfully done."

"Liaoyang at sunrise on Sept. 4 presented a dismal spectacle. The Russian settlement was burning and overhanging with a pall of smoke. The town was not greatly damaged by the shell fire, but all the European shops and the wealthy Chinese residences had been sacked."

Russian experts are inclined to criticize Kuropatkin's tactics at Liaoyang, believing his order to retreat was ill-advised.

TRADE AND INDUSTRY ACTIVE.

Developments More Favorable for Good Fall Business.

New York, Sept. 10.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says trade, crop and industrial developments have been generally favorable this week. Distributions on fall and winter trade account had enlarged at most markets, the corn crop has progressed another week toward final maturity, which however, this year is later than usual, and several industries hitherto greatly depressed or operating on short time, have resumed running full.

The industrial situation is slightly less strained than it was and the beef strike is now ended. In iron and steel, past and prospective price reductions have encouraged inquiry, consumption has finally overtaken production and stocks of crude material are smaller.

With the beginning of the crop movement, which is reasonably heavy for this period, has come improved collections and better railway earnings returns. August results point to a 6 per cent increase in gross receipts over a year ago. All in all the prospects continue favorable for fairly active trade in most lines, but nothing in the way of record breaking is looked for in general business or in crop output.

The stubborn strength of prices is, perhaps, the most notable feature in the entire situation.

FELL SHORT OF HIS EXPECTATIONS.

The correspondent proceeds in a critical vein, promising that his information is somewhat incomplete owing to the great extent of the operations.

ONE COLUMN IN PERIL

RUSSIAN ARMY OF TWELVE THOUSAND MEN IN DANGER OF ANNIHILATION.

London, Sept. 10.—The Daily Express claims to have trustworthy information that the Russian army is divided into five columns. The first has reached Tieling pass, forty miles north of Mukden, and is preparing to defend that place against the Japanese. The second is midway between Mukden and Tieling pass. The third is at Mukden. The fourth, consisting of 40,000 men under General Meyendorff, is holding General Kuroki in check by hard fighting twelve miles south of Mukden. The fifth, of about 12,000 men, is further south, exhausted by incessant fighting and is surrounded on three sides by the Japanese, its position being one of extreme danger from which it can hardly hope to escape.

"Everything now depends," says the paper, "on Meyendorff's ability to hold Kuroki in check, which thus far has been successfully done."

HEAVY RAIN AT MUKDEN.

Roads and Streets Flooded and Military Operations Stopped.

Mukden, Sept. 10.—Friday evening around Mukden occurred the greatest downpour of rain of the whole campaign and with it a terrifying accompaniment of thunder and lightning. There has been the greatest difficulty in preventing the cavalry stampeding by the double guards and all the horse lines have been tied.

All the lower ground is under water and Chinese boats from the Hun river are navigating many of the roads and some of the streets. This makes little difference to the men who are under canvas; but all others are soaked to the skin and are sleeping exhausted in mud and water, indifferent to the weather if they can snatch much needed rest.

One advantage is that the rain has entirely checked the movements of the two Russian corps and one Siberian corps had been left at Mukden and a number of these reserves were brought into the fight. The size of the Japanese army has not been definitely established, but its actual fighting force is supposed to have had a superiority in numbers of from 50,000 to 60,000 men and a considerable superiority in artillery.

One of the chief advantages possessed by Field Marshal Oyama, according to the Russian experts, consisted in the greater elasticity in movement and in handling, on account of the separation of the three respective armies of Generals Kuroki, Oku and Nodzu. Kuropatkin very late also introduced the same system after a fashion when he created the Eastern and Southern armies under the respective commands of Generals Ivanoff and Zaroubaleff, but these armies had not been acting independently for months, while the Japanese armies had been so acting.

Russian experts are inclined to criticize Kuropatkin's tactics at Liaoyang, believing his order to retreat was ill-advised.

TRYING TO START A REVOLT

ISSUE PROCLAMATIONS URGING JEWS AND POLES TO RISE IN REBELLION.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—Intense activity is being displayed by some anti-Russian revolutionary organizations abroad. It seems that they have united in an effort to appeal to all the discontented classes of the Russian population. Incendiary proclamations have been smuggled across the border and distributed broadcast in the towns and cities, especially in Polish and Jewish centers, calling upon the population to take advantage of the government's pre-occupation owing to the war to rise against the authorities and overthrow the autocracy.

Such propaganda in Russia always results in an increase in violence. The proclamations are addressed to the Jews in particular, but the appeals are made to the orthodox sex, workingmen and Socialists and a new feature is that special appeals are made to the soldiers and peasants.

Many of the proclamations have been seized and it is proved that they have been printed in London.

Until now they have met with little response in Russia proper, but there have been several manifestations in various places in Poland and Southwestern Russia, where the population is largely Jewish. The largest demonstration, it is understood, took place at Grodno, Poland, where 500 persons participated.

The ministry of the interior seemingly does not attach great importance to the proclamations and the reports which have been received indicates that the people have not been stirred up by them.

PRINCE ALERT SETS NEW MARK.

Breaks the Record for Pacing Geldings Without Wind Shields.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 10.—On an excellent track, but with a fairly heavy head wind in the stretch, Prince Alert Friday established new figures for pacing geldings without wind shields, going the mile in 1:59 1/2. The previous record was 1:59 3/4, held by himself. With McDonald up, the gelding went the first quarter in 29 1/4, the half in 59, three-quarters in 1:29 3/4, and the mile in 1:59 1/2.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Mexico will shortly establish a legation at Peking. Don Carlos Lera, now Mexican minister to Japan, will also be minister to China.

Judge S. A. Kingman, the first chief justice of Kansas, died at Topeka Friday night. He was one of the most prominent Kansas pioneers.

In Friday's racing of the county club's annual regatta at Detroit, Mich., the Ste. Claire of Detroit captured both the Commodore cup and the Harriington cup.

At Denver, Harry Forbes of Chicago won from Mike Magovey of Louisville in the eighth round of a go that was scheduled for ten rounds Friday night. Magovey's seconds threw up the sponge.

PRIZE DRILLS FINISHED.

Modern Woodmen of America Encampment Nearly Ended.

St. Louis, Sept. 10.—The Modern Woodmen of America, who are encamped at the world's fair grounds, finished their prize drills Friday. The encampment will end today. The following were the successful contestants Friday:

Battalion drill—Toledo, O., first; combined battalion of companies from Rock Island, Davenport and Monmouth, second.

Sentry drill—Omaha, one prize; Portsmouth, O., one prize; Lead, S. D., two prizes; St. Paul, one prize; Pueblo, one prize; Jackson, Mich., one prize.

GEORGE WILLIAMS HANGED.

Negro Assailant of Laura Knade Executed in Prison.

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 10.—George Williams, the Jefferson county negro who waylaid and criminally assaulted Laura Knade near Harper's Ferry several weeks ago, was hanged at the state prison in Moundsville, Friday at 5:18 p. m. Williams never lost his nerve and went to the scaffold without a whimper, declaring to the last his innocence.

Knights Templars Complete Work.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—The Knights Templars having completed the work of their national encampment are devoting the remainder of the week to sightseeing and social enjoyment. Receptions were held by nearly all the commanderies.

Russian Deserters in New York.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Three Russian army deserters arrived here Friday without funds or passports and were sent back to Canada. Several others who entered recently are working as farmhands. One Russian who is still wearing a part of his army uniform said that he deserted with an entire outfit of fifty men.

LARGE VESSEL SINKS.

The Crew of the Ship Escapes in the Boats.

Highland Light, Mass., Sept. 10.—A large vessel has been sunk off Highland Light. The crew left the vessel in boats. It is not known whether the wreck was that of a freighter or passenger boat.

DOCUMENT IS COMPLETED.

Judge Parker Has Finished His Letter of Acceptance.

Esopus, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Few visitors were at Rosemount Friday. Rain fell nearly all day, but this fact did not prevent Judge Parker taking his daily ride.

Judge Parker has completed his letter of acceptance, but it has not been sent to the printer and probably will not be for several days. William F. Sheehan is expected here today to remain over Sunday.

Quarrel Ends in Suicide.

St. Paul, Sept. 10.—Mrs. Lorenzo E. Palmerston committed suicide last night by taking two ounces of carbolic acid in the bedroom of her apartments, 500 St. Peter street. The direct cause of the act is attributed to a quarrel with her husband, Lorenzo E. Palmerston, immediately preceding the deed.

BAD AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

One Man Fatally Injured and Two Others Badly Hurt.

Minneapolis, Sept. 10.—George Miller, 95 Eleventh street south; John Boutil and a young man named Kelley, all of Minneapolis, were injured badly in an automobile accident last night at Kenwood parkway and Twenty-first street, in this city.

Boutil says he and Kelley and Miller accepted the invitation of two unknown young men to ride in a large automobile. The machine went around the parkway at the rate of forty miles an hour and at Twenty-first street they collided with the Peavy fountain, smashing the machine to bits, and throwing out the occupants. Miller had his scalp torn off and his back broken. He is probably fatally injured.

Boutil had his left leg broken, and Kelley had three ribs and a collar bone fractured. Both are seriously injured. All three were removed to the hospital.

After the accident the two men who ran the machine disappeared and no trace has been found of them. The number attached to the machine has been lost.

FOUR PERSONS KILLED.

Trains on Seaboard Railway Mixed in a Bad Wreck.

Portsmouth, Va., Sept. 10.—Shortly after 1 o'clock Friday morning, No. 41 on the Seaboard railway, consisting of an express car, two day coaches and a sleeper, was derailed at a trestle just south of Catawba river, twenty-two miles southwest of Monroe, N. C., followed by the wreck of a light engine and caboose, resulting in the death of four persons and the injuring of thirty-five others.

The killed are: Engineer E. Y. Barksdale, Fireman S. C. Roberts (colored), Mrs. Black and an unknown woman.

Of the more seriously injured, Mrs. Sidney Herbert of Maitland, Fla., may die.

The killed and injured were taken to Monroe.

FATE OF MAIN RUSSIAN ARMY DEPENDS UPON SUCCESS OF ONE COLUMN.

Although there is still a lack of specific information regarding the exact situation in Manchuria, a London paper claims to have trustworthy information that detracts from the brilliancy of Kuropatkin's retreat. According to this paper, the Russian army is divided into five columns, one of which is at Tieling pass, the strategic position forty miles north of Mukden; another column is between Mukden and Tieling pass; the third is at Mukden itself, while the fourth, composed of 40,000 men, is trying to hold General Kuroki in check, twelve miles south of Mukden. Upon the success or defeat of this column depends the fate of the main Russian army, for its success will enable Kuropatkin to retire to Tieling pass unmolested, while its defeat would mean disaster to the Russians.

The main interest at present, however, centers upon the fifth Russian column, which is south of Kuroki's army and is surrounded on three sides by the Japanese, with little hope of effecting its escape. This column numbers 12,000 men and it looks as though they would all be killed or captured.

Details Entirely Lacking.
The Russian general staff, lacking details, is unable to speak authoritatively, while advices from Japanese sources are significantly lacking. It is established that the main Russian army is safely at Mukden and that the retreat was accomplished in comparatively good order in spite of the harassing Japanese, sodden roads and the fact that Kuropatkin was hampered by more than 12,000 wounded. There is nothing yet to indicate the exact whereabouts of the three Japanese armies.

Viceroy Alexieff reports that railway and telegraphic communication between Mukden and Harbin is uninterrupted. General Sakharoff reports that there was no fighting Thursday and while the outposts are still in contact they are not even exchanging shots. It seems to be established that Oyama's troops practically abandoned on Wednesday the attempt to head off Kuropatkin and that the last determined effort to bring the Russian commander to bay was made on Tuesday. A detailed list of Russian losses is promised Saturday and it is expected that these losses will approximate 20,000 as against 20,000 for the Japanese. It is officially reported that Kuropatkin has not been wounded.

There is no news from Port Arthur.

The latest dispatch from Mukden tells of heavy rains that have flooded streets and roads and stopped the advance of the Japanese armies.

ONE COLUMN IN PERIL

RUSSIAN ARMY OF TWELVE THOUSAND MEN IN DANGER OF ANNIHILATION.

London, Sept. 10.—The Daily Express claims to have trustworthy information that the Russian army is divided into five columns. The first has reached Tieling pass, forty miles north of Mukden, and is preparing to defend that place against the Japanese. The second is midway between Mukden and Tieling pass. The third is at Mukden. The fourth, consisting of 40,000 men under General Meyendorff, is holding General Kuroki in check by hard fighting twelve miles south of Mukden. The fifth, of about 12,000 men, is further south, exhausted by incessant fighting and is surrounded on three sides by the Japanese, its position being one of extreme danger, from which it can hardly hope to escape.

"Everything now depends," says the paper, "on Meyendorff's ability to hold Kuroki in check, which thus far has been successfully done."

HEAVY RAIN AT MUKDEN.
Roads and Streets Flooded and Military Operations Stopped.

Mukden, Sept. 10.—Friday evening around Mukden occurred the greatest downpour of rain of the whole campaign and with it a terrifying accompaniment of thunder and lightning. There has been the greatest difficulty in preventing the cavalry stampeding by the double guards and all the horse lines have been tied.

All the lower ground is under water and Chinese boats from the Hun river are navigating many of the roads and some of the streets. This makes little difference to the men who are under canvas; but all others are soaked to the skin and are sleeping exhausted in mud and water, indifferent to the weather if they can snatch much needed rest.

One advantage is that the rain has entirely checked the movements of the Japanese eastern and southern armies, in fact quiet reigns over the whole front.

The Chinese population of Mukden is so far fairly orderly. The Chinese are suffering greatly and in the villages all around crops, cattle and poultry have been trodden down and killed. The Russians are endeavoring to pay for all damage, though this is often difficult, owing to the rapid shifting of the troops and the natives are always ready where possible to induce two or more commanders to pay for the same damage.

THE FINEST IN THE WORLD.

British Correspondent Pays High Tribute to Troops Under Oku.

London, Sept. 10.—The Times prints a dispatch dated at Peking from a correspondent lately with General Oku's army, which says:

"Liaoyang at sunrise on Sept. 4 presented a dismal spectacle. The Russian settlement was burning and overhung with a pall of smoke. The town was not greatly damaged by the shell fire, but all the European shops and the wealthy Chinese residences had been sacked.

"The Japanese spoils of war were insignificant. They got no locomotives, which they urgently needed, and which would have been more valuable to them than artillery.

"The Japanese divisional commander attempted to pursue the Russians and managed to secure a bridge, but his troops were too fatigued to effect anything."

FELL SHORT OF HIS EXPECTATIONS.

The correspondent proceeds in a critical vein, promising that his information is somewhat incomplete owing to the great extent of the operations. He says that after what he read of Japanese tactics and strategy he is compelled to confess that what he saw in practice fell short of his expectations.

"My honest opinion," said the correspondent, "is that there was nothing strategically excellent in the handling of either army, though Kuropatkin can claim to have defeated the main object of the Japanese operations.

"The Russians obviously in their tactics cling to the cardinal error of over-manning the defensive positions, while the sole spirit of the Japanese tactics, as illustrated under Oku, was sledge hammer frontal attacks.

"I am satisfied that Oku commands the finest infantry in the world. I do not believe that any other army could in five days deliver eight unsuccessful infantry assaults against entrenched positions and still persevere."

ATTEMPT ABANDONED

GYAMA CEASES EFFORTS TO EFFECT THE ISOLATION OF KUROPATKIN.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—It seems to be definitely established that Field Marshal Oyama's tired troops practically abandoned on Wednesday the attempt to head off Kuropatkin and that the last determined effort to bring the Russian commander to bay was made on Tuesday. A detailed list of Russian losses is promised Saturday and it is expected that these losses will approximate 20,000 as against 20,000 for the Japanese. It is officially reported that Kuropatkin has not been wounded.

There is no news from Port Arthur.

The latest dispatch from Mukden tells of heavy rains that have flooded streets and roads and stopped the advance of the Japanese armies.

PRINCE ALERT SETS NEW MARK.
Breaks the Record for Pacing Geldings Without Wind Shields.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 10.—On an excellent track, but with a fair head wind in the stretch, Prince Alert Friday established new figures for pacing geldings without wind shields, going the mile in 1:59 $\frac{1}{4}$ . The previous record was 1:59 $\frac{3}{4}$ , held by himself. With McDonald up, the gelding went the first quarter in 29 $\frac{1}{4}$ , the half in 59, three-quarters in 1:29 $\frac{1}{4}$ , and the mile in 1:59 $\frac{1}{4}$ .

two Russian corps and one Siberian corps had been left at Mukden and a number of these reserves were brought into the fight. The size of the Japanese army has not been definitely established, but its actual fighting force is supposed to have had a superiority in numbers of from 50,000 to 60,000 men and a considerable superiority in artillerists.

One of the chief advantages possessed by Field Marshal Oyama, according to the Russian experts, consisted in the greater elasticity in movement and in handling, on account of the separation of the three respective armies of Generals Kuroki, Oku and Ono. Kuropatkin very late also introduced the same system after a fashion when he created the Eastern and Southern armies under the respective commands of Generals Ivanoff and Zaroubaleff, but these armies had not been acting independently for months, while the Japanese armies had been so acting.

Russian experts are inclined to criticize Kuropatkin's tactics at Liaoyang, believing his order to retreat was ill-advised.

TRADE AND INDUSTRY ACTIVE.

Developments More Favorable for Good Farm Business.

New York, Sept. 10.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says trade, crop and industrial developments have been generally favorable this week.

Distributions on fall and winter trade account had enlarged at most markets, the corn crop has progressed another week toward final maturity, which however, this year is later than usual, and several industries hitherto greatly depressed or operating on short time, have resumed running full.

The industrial situation is slightly less strained than it was, and the beef strike is now ended. In iron and steel, past and prospective price reductions have encouraged inquiry, consumption has finally overtaken production and stocks of crude material are smaller.

With the beginning of the crop movement, which is reasonably heavy for this period, has come improved collections and better railway earnings returns. August results point to 6 per cent increase in gross receipts over a year ago. All in all the prospects continue favorable for a fairly active trade in most lines, but nothing in the way of record breaking is looked for in general business or in crop output. The stubborn strength of prices is, perhaps, the most notable feature in the entire situation.

PRINCE ALERT SETS NEW MARK.

Breaks the Record for Pacing Geldings Without Wind Shields.

Minneapolis, Sept. 10.—George Miller, 95 Eleventh street south; John Bouldell and a young man named Kelley, all of Minneapolis, were injured badly in an automobile accident last night at Kenwood parkway and Twenty-first street, in this city.

Bouldell says he and Kelley and Miller accepted the invitation of two unknown young men to ride in a large automobile. The machine went around the parkway at the rate of forty miles an hour and at Twenty-first street they collided with the Peavy fountain, smashing the machine to bits, and throwing out the occupants. Miller had his scalp torn off and his back injured. He is probably fatally injured. Bouldell had his left leg broken, and Kelley had three ribs and a collar bone fractured. Both are seriously injured. All three were removed to the hospital.

The ministry of the interior seemingly does not attach great importance to the proclamations and the reports which have been received indicates that the people have not been stirred up by them.

BAD AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

One Man Fatally Injured and Two Others Badly Hurt.

Minneapolis, Sept. 10.—George Miller, 95 Eleventh street south; John Bouldell and a young man named Kelley, all of Minneapolis, were injured badly in an automobile accident last night at Kenwood parkway and Twenty-first street, in this city.

Bouldell says he and Kelley and Miller accepted the invitation of two unknown young men to ride in a large automobile. The machine went around the parkway at the rate of forty miles an hour and at Twenty-first street they collided with the Peavy fountain, smashing the machine to bits, and throwing out the occupants. Miller had his scalp torn off and his back injured. He is probably fatally injured.

Bouldell had his left leg broken, and Kelley had three ribs and a collar bone fractured. Both are seriously injured.

After the accident the two men who were in the machine disappeared and no trace has been found of them. The number attached to the machine has been lost.

FOUR PERSONS KILLED.

Trains on Seaboard Railway Mixed in a Bad Wreck.

Portsmouth, Va., Sept. 10.—Shortly after 1 o'clock Friday morning, train No. 41 on the Seaboard railway, consisting of an express car, two day coaches and a sleeper, was derailed at a trestle just south of Catawba river, twenty-two miles southwesterly of Monroe, N. C., followed by the wreck of a light engine and caboose, resulting in the death of four persons and the injuring of thirty-five others.

Judge S. A. Kingman, the first chief justice of Kansas, died at Topeka Friday night. He was one of the most prominent Kansas pioneers.

In Friday's racing of the county club's annual regatta at Detroit, Mich., the Ste. Claire of Detroit captured both the Commodore cup and the Harrington cup.

At Denver, Harry Forbes of Chicago won from Mike Magoev of Louisville in the eighth round of a go that was scheduled for ten rounds Friday night. Magoev's seconds threw up the sponge.

PRIZE DRILLS FINISHED.

Modern Woodmen of America Encampment Nearly Ended.

St. Louis, Sept. 10.—The Modern Woodmen of America, who are encamped at the world's fair grounds, finished their prize drills Friday. The following were the successful contestants Friday:

Battalion drill—Toledo, O., first; combined battalion of companies from Rock Island, Davenport and Monmouth, second.

Sentry drill—Omaha, one prize;

Porthsmouth, O., one prize; Lead, S. D., two prizes; St. Paul, one prize; Pueblo, one prize; Jackson, Mich., one prize.

GEORGE WILLIAMS HANGED.

Negro Assailant of Laura Knade Executed in Prison.

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 10.—George Williams, the Jefferson county negro who waylaid and criminally assaulted Laura Knade near Harper's Ferry several weeks ago, was hanged at the state prison in Moundsville, Friday at 5:18 p. m. Williams never lost his nerve and went to the scaffold without a whimper, declaring to the last his innocence.

ANOTHER HARRIS SUSPECT.

Gus Willis Held on Suspicion of Having Stain Wisconsin Sheriff.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 10.—Gus Willis, arrested here for vagrancy, is believed by the police to be a man wanted in Wisconsin for the alleged murder of Sheriff Harris of St. Croix county on a train near Eau Claire last January. The sheriff attempted to arrest a man suspected of burglary and was shot dead. The man escaped and was supposed to have come to the coast. Willis is said to answer the description. He will be detained here for identification.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS COMPLETE WORK.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—The Knights Templars having completed the work of their national encampment are devoting the remainder of the week to sightseeing and social enjoyment. Receptions were held by nearly all the commanderies.

Russian Deserters in New York.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Three

Russian army deserters arrived here Friday without funds or passports and were sent back to Canada. Several others who entered recently are working as farmhands. One Russian who is still wearing a part of his army uniform said that he deserted with an entire outfit of fifty men.

LARGE VESSEL SINKS.

The Crew of the Ship Escapes in the Boats.

Highland Light, Mass., Sept. 10.—A large vessel has been sunk off

Highland Light. The crew left the vessel in boats. It is not known whether the wreck was that of a freighter or passenger boat.

OMINOUS FOR THE RUSSIANS.

London, Sept. 10.—English morning papers comment chiefly on the details of the battle of Liaoyang. Another day of Japanese silence, however, strikes the military critics here with the suspicion that the lull in action may be ominous for the Russians.

ENEMIES ARE ACTIVE

FOREIGN FOES OF RUSSIA BUSY STIRRING UP TROUBLE IN THE EMPIRE.

TRYING TO START A REVOLT

ISSUE PROCLAMATIONS URGING JEWS AND POLES TO RISE IN REBELLION.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—Intense activity is being displayed by some anti-Russian revolutionary organizations abroad. It seems that they have united in an effort to appeal to all the discontented classes of the Russian population. Incendiary proclamations have been smuggled across the border and distributed broadcast in the towns and cities, especially in Polish and Jewish centers, calling upon the population to take advantage of the government's pre-occupation owing to the war to rise against the authorities and overthrow the autocracy.

Such propaganda in Russia always results in an increase in violence. The proclamations are addressed to the Jews in particular, but the appeals are made to the orthodox sex, workers and Socialists and a new feature is that special appeals are made to the soldiers and peasants.

Many of the proclamations have been seized and it is proved that they have been printed in London.

Until now they have met with little response in Russia proper, but there have been several manifestations in various places in Poland and Southwestern Russia, where the population is largely Jewish. The largest demonstration, it is understood, took place at Grodno, Poland, where 500 persons participated.

The ministry of the interior seemingly does not attach great importance to the proclamations and the reports which have been received indicates that the people have not been stirred up by them.

Temperature (Record kept by Dr. J. L. Camp from 7 a. m. yesterday morning to 7 a. m. this morning)—Maximum 78 above zero; minimum 55 above zero.

SECRETARY ROOT and Governors Black and Odell have all refused the republican nomination for governor of New York. However there is a lot of small fry who yearn for the place.

CHARLEY TOWNE'S oil company has gone to the wall. Its property was sold a day or two since under the hammer at 11½ per cent of the capital stock. The other 98½ per cent probably represents the "profit" the organizers made out of the deal. Charley used to travel through this district telling what he knew of finance, and his oil experience demonstrates that he does know considerable.

INTENSE heat prevails and has prevailed on the Pacific coast for the past two months. In Fresno the average temperature for two months has been 102 in the shade and at all points in southern California Thursday the maximum temperature ranged from 111 to 112 degrees in the shade. There have been huge tidal waves on the coast without apparent cause and earthquake shocks. After all Minnesota's climate seems to be all right.

ODD MOON BELIEFS.

The Orb of Night as Food For the Immortal Gods.

Certain it is that a belief in the moon as the abode of the fathers was widely spread among the people speaking the Aryan languages. To the present day the peasants in Swabia are heard to say, "May I go to the moon if I did it," instead of "May I die if I did it." Nay, people who work on the Sabbath day are threatening even now that they will go to the moon—that is, that they will die and be punished in the moon.

A more startling idea—peculiar, it would seem, to India—was that of the moon serving as the food of the gods. And yet, though it sounds strange to us, it was not so very unnatural an idea after all. The gods, though invisible, had been located in the sky. In the same sky the golden moon, often compared to a round of golden butter, was seen regularly to decrease. And if it were being consumed by anybody by whom could it be consumed if not by the gods? Hence the ready conclusion that it was so and that it was, in fact, this food which secured to the gods their immortal life.

If so much had once been granted, then came the question, How was the moon gradually increased and restored to its fullness? And here the old superstition came in that the souls of the departed entered the moon, so that the waxing of the moon might readily be accounted for by this more ancient article of faith. Hence the systematized belief that the moon wanes while it is being eaten by the gods and that it waxes while it is being filled by the departed souls entering it. A last conclusion was that the gods when feeding on the moon were really feeding on the souls of the departed.

USE OF PERSONAL PRONOUN

Why the Unenlightened Always to Be Talking of Self.

All the unenlightened appear almost always to be talking about themselves, but it is easy for a superficial observer to exaggerate the extent to which this is the case. For instance, if you discuss with a cultivated man a question of morals or the wisdom or rectitude of any particular line of conduct, he will tell you what he thinks right or what he thinks wrong or what strikes him as wise or foolish, with very little use of the personal pronoun. He can see the situation from the outside. But if you discuss it with an uneducated man he is incapable of this detached attitude of mind. The uneducated man can only picture the circumstances to himself by placing himself in the midst of them. What he thinks right and wise is, no doubt, often a great deal better and wiser than what he would actually have done. "Such and such a thing was wrong; I should not have done it," he says, or, "Such and such was foolish. Now, had it been me, I should have done so and so." To the sophisticated listener he gives an impression of appalling self-righteousness and even perhaps of hypocrisy, but the impression is a mistaken one. He argues in the vocative case, because it is the one in which he can most easily express himself.

Some people, it must be admitted, attract confidences from those who have no weakness for making them. We are not alluding to those persons who by a method of deft cross questioning manage to abstract information with which they have no business. Such information is not confided by its original owner, but stolen from him, or at least wormed out of him. The people we mean have that in their face and bearing which makes all the world at home with them. Whoever meets them may know that they are incapable of giving a snub or a rebuff to any one who claims their sympathy, be he never so silly. They go about the world unarmed and unafraid, to give human nature its due, unhurt. Unconsciously it is they who make the first confidence, telling those who see them, even for the first time, that they are sympathetic and detached, and as shrewd as they are harmless.—London Spectator.

Weather.

Forecast—Fair and cooler.

Temperature (Record kept by Dr. J. L. Camp from 7 a. m. yesterday morning to 7 a. m. this morning)—Maximum 78 above zero; minimum 55 above zero.

SECRETARY Root and Governors Black and Odell have all refused the republican nomination for governor of New York. However there is a lot of small fry who yearn for the place.

CHARLEY TOWNE's oil company has gone to the wall. Its property was sold a day or two since under the hammer at 1½ per cent of the capital stock. The other 98½ per cent probably represents the "profit" the organizers made out of the deal. Charley used to travel through this district telling what he knew of finance, and his oil experience demonstrates that he does know considerable.

INTENSE heat prevails and has prevailed on the Pacific coast for the past two months. In Fresno the average temperature for two months has been 102 in the shade and at all points has been 112 in the shade. There have been huge tidal waves on the coast without apparent cause and earthquake shocks. After all Minnesota's climate seems to be all right.

ODD MOON BELIEFS.

The Orb of Night as Food For the Immortal Gods.

Certain it is that a belief in the moon as the abode of the fathers was widely spread among the people speaking the Aryan languages. To the present day the peasants in Swabia are heard to say, "May I go to the moon if I did it," instead of "May I die if I did it." Nay, people who work on the Sabbath day are threatening even now that they will go to the moon—that is, that they will die and be punished in the moon.

A more startling idea—peculiar, it would seem, to India—is that of the moon serving as the food of the gods. And yet, though it sounds strange to us, it was not so very unnatural an idea after all. The gods, though invisible, had been located in the sky. In the same sky the golden moon, often compared to a round of golden butter, was seen regularly to decrease. And if it were being consumed by anybody by whom could it be consumed if not by the gods? Hence the ready conclusion that it was so and that it was, in fact, this food which secured to the gods their immortal life.

If so much had once been granted, then came the question, How was the moon gradually increased and restored to its fullness? And here the old superstition came in that the souls of the departed entered the moon, so that the waxing of the moon might readily be accounted for by this more ancient article of faith. Hence the systematized belief that the moon wanes while it is being eaten by the gods and that it waxes while it is being filled by the departed souls entering it. A last conclusion was that the gods when feeding on the moon were really feeding on the souls of the departed.

USE OF PERSONAL PRONOUN

Why the Uncultivated Appear Always to Be Talking of Self.

All the uncultivated appear almost always to be talking about themselves, but it is easy for a superficial observer to exaggerate the extent to which this is the case. For instance, if you discuss with a cultivated man a question of morals or the wisdom or rectitude of any particular line of conduct, he will tell you what he thinks right or what he thinks wrong or what strikes him as wise or foolish, with very little use of the personal pronoun. He can see the situation from the outside. But if you discuss it with an uncultivated man he is incapable of this detached attitude of mind. The uncultivated man can only picture the circumstances to himself by picturing himself in the midst of them. What he thinks right and wise is, no doubt, often a great deal better and wiser than what he would actually have done. "Such and such a thing was wrong; I should not have done it," he says, or, "Such and such was foolish. Now, had it been me, I should have done so and so." To the sophisticated listener he gives an impression of appealing self-righteousness and even perhaps of hypocrisy, but the impression is a mistaken one. He argues in the vocative case, because it is the one in which he can most easily express himself.

Some people, it must be admitted, attract confidences from those who have no weakness for making them. We are not alluding to those persons who by a method of deft cross questioning manage to abstract information with which they have no business. Such information is not confined by its original owner, but stolen from him, or at least wormed out of him. The people we mean have that in their face and bearing which makes all the world at home with them. Whoever meets them may know that they are incapable of giving a snub or a rebuff to any one who claims their sympathy, be he never so silly. They go about the world unarmed and unafraid and, to give human nature its due, unhurt. Unconsciously, it is—they who make the first confidence, telling those who see them, even for the first time, that they are sympathetic and detached, and as shrewd as they are harmless.—London Spectator.

FINE NEW OFFICE

Mahlum Lumber Company Move into their New Offices in Mahlum Building on Corner of Laurel and Eighth.

There is a new regulation which will be of great benefit to the farmers who will have wheat to sell this fall. The chamber of commerce has established a new grade which is known as No. 4 Northern. The wheat formerly graded as "rejected" will now come under this head and for this, the very lowest grade, Mr. Hessel is paying at the present time 91 cents a bushel so it can be imagined what is paid for wheat that grades up pretty well. This new grade runs about 50 or 52 pounds to the bushel. There is about 11 cents difference in price between this grade and "rejected."

The corn crop also promises to be very good this year. With another week without frost nearly all the corn will be in the clear. Even now there is a large amount of the crop that is past the danger point.

The oat crop is immense, the largest in years and farmers all through the county will have their granaries full of this grain.

The potato crop is one the best in the history of the county and thousands of bushels will be sold by the farmers of

Crow Wing county this fall and winter. The other products, such as garden truck, are on a par with the grains specified above and there will be a big supply.

The farmers are also congratulating themselves this year on the excellent hay crop and the good weather they have had to put it up. There is no lack of feed for the stock this winter.

The conditions noted above are gleaned from those who are familiar with all the circumstances and there is no reason in the world why this could not be a banner year for Crow Wing county. With good crops and unusually good prices times should be very good.

Another Week Without Frost Will Put Corn in the Clear and Oat Crop is Immense.

Crow Wing county this fall and winter. The other products, such as garden truck, are on a par with the grains specified above and there will be a big supply.

The farmers are also congratulating themselves this year on the excellent hay crop and the good weather they have had to put it up. There be no lack of feed for the stock this winter.

The conditions noted above are gleaned from those who are familiar with all the circumstances and there is no reason in the world why this could not be a banner year for Crow Wing county. With good crops and unusually good prices times should be very good.

Mahlm Lumber Company Move into their New Offices in Mahlm Building on Corner of Laurel and Eighth.

There is a new regulation which will be of great benefit to the farmers who will have wheat to sell this fall. The chamber of commerce has established a new grade which is known as No. 4 Northern. The wheat formerly graded as "rejected" will now come under this head and for this, the very lowest grade, Mr. Hessel is paying at the present time 91 cents a bushel so it can be imagined what is paid for wheat that grades up pretty well. This new grade runs about 50 or 52 pounds to the bushel. There is about 11 cents difference in price between this grade and "rejected."

The corn crop also promises to be very good this year. With another week without frost nearly all the corn will be in the clear. Even now there is a large amount of the crop that is past the danger point.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"A FRIEND OF THE FAMILY."

"A Friend of the Family" which comes to the Brainerd Opera House next Tuesday, Sept. 13, might well be recommended as an unfailing remedy for the blues, so rich is it in humor and mirth provoking situations.

It tells the story of the troubles of Bartley Swift, a respectable married man, who before marriage had been in love with Nancy Noyes, now the widow of Bartley's wife's father. She announces that she will visit her late husband's relatives, not knowing that Bartley is a member of the family, and Bartley is by no means anxious to have her come on account of their old love affair.

She appears and she is mistaken by the family for a governess whom Mrs. Swift had engaged. Through three acts the baiting of Bartley by the supposed governess is great fun. The company engaged to present "A Friend of the Family this season is said to be one of the best ever touring in farce and includes William Friend, Harry Crandall, Eugene Redding, William Woodside, Thias Magrane, Theodora Dudley, Helen Travers, Violette Villiers, Lucille Villiers, Carroll Hamilton, and others.

The sale of seats for this popular attraction will open on Monday morning at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store. The prices will be the usual house prices and as the production was seen here last year and conceded to be one of the best seen at the Brainerd opera house last year there should be a big audience next Tuesday night.

PRICES OF PRODUCTS HELP SOME

Another Week Without Frost Will Put Corn in the Clear and Oat Crop is Immense.

The crop conditions in Crow Wing are certainly of a very encouraging nature as compared with other sections of the state and the northwest and it is the opinion of many who are acquainted with the conditions of former years that this will be the best that the farmers of the county have experienced for a long time.

The wheat crop, for instance, is good, very good as compared with most localities. John C. Hessel, the machinery man and grain dealer, gives it out as his opinion that the average per acre this year will be 15 bushels. This is very good and as there is the average acreage there should be no kick from this source.

There is a new regulation which will be of great benefit to the farmers who will have wheat to sell this fall. The chamber of commerce has established a new grade which is known as No. 4 Northern. The wheat formerly graded as "rejected" will now come under this head and for this, the very lowest grade, Mr. Hessel is paying at the present time 91 cents a bushel so it can be imagined what is paid for wheat that grades up pretty well. BLUE AND BROWN ARMIES CON-
BULL RUN.

ONE VICTORY FOR EACH SIDE

ATTACKING FORCE CAME OUT
VICTORIOUS IN EACH OF THE ENGAGEMENTS.

Gainesville, Va., Sept. 10.—The second maneuver problem ceased at 9 o'clock Friday with General Bell, commanding the brown army, demolishing General Grant, commanding the blue army, east of Bull Run. This result awards victory to the attacking force in each of the two problems and makes General Grant the first victor and General Bell the second so far as results can be estimated without bullets.

The maneuvering and fighting Friday was far the most spectacular and exciting of the campaign. The first day of the second problem had developed nothing but a rear guard action on the part of General Grant, while General Bell had spent his time endeavoring to make a demonstration on the left wing or to the south of the blue line. During the night the situation was changed.

General Grant's position remained the same, behind or to the east of Bull Run. He withdrew his first brigade under General Wint, who had fought the rear guard action the day before to the famous stone bridge across Bull Run, along whose eastern shores the battle had been driven across the bridge with the loss of one brigade.

General Bell executed a magnificent night march and put a force across Bull Run at Sudley. His center made three charges at Stone bridge, the third being successful, putting the entire blue force at this point out of action. The force that crossed at Sudley struck Grant's line in the rear and the maneuver ended with General Bell's army victorious.

The militia will be paid today after the review, which it is to be held at Wellington.

BIG FOREST FIRES RAGING.

Large Tracts of Valuable Timber in California Being Destroyed.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—Forest fires are doing great damage in several sections of California. In Alameda and Contra Costa counties, thousands of acres of land have been swept by flames and many houses have been destroyed. The loss will reach $100,000.

The big basin state park in Santa Cruz and Santa Clara counties, which contain some of the largest and finest red wood trees in the state, seems doomed to destruction, though hundreds of men are fighting the fires.

In Monterey and San Luis Obispo counties thousands of acres of pasture have been burned and the stock driven from the ranges. None of the fires are yet under control and no estimate of the total loss can be made.

DARING DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

Two Men Loot an Ohio County Treasury of $14,000.

Pomeroy, O., Sept. 10.—Two men entered the office of County Treasurer T. J. Chase Friday in broad daylight and while one of them covered Chase with a revolver, the other went through the safe, securing $14,000. They then locked Chase in the vault and made their escape. Chase was found three hours later by his wife and released. Several thousand dollars in gold in the safe was overlooked by the robbers. The sheriff and his deputies were at the fair grounds and all the city officers except the marshal were out of town at the time of the robbery. No trace of the robbers has been secured.

FATAL TRAIN WRECK.

Two Men Killed and Another Seriously Injured.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 10.—Two men were killed and another seriously injured in a wreck on the Southern railway between Dogwood and Wilton on the Birmingham and Selma division Friday. The dead are W. H. Cherry, engineer; Will Ivey, negro brakeman.

Fireman N. L. Snow, white, was dangerously injured.

The train was running thirty miles an hour when the engine jumped the track, turning completely over, crushing the engineer beneath it. Several other employees of the road are said to have been bruised but not seriously injured.

Burned to Death in a Barn.

Indianola, Neb., Sept. 10.—Three sons of Jacob Korb, a farmer near here, slept in the hay mow of the barn Thursday night. Two of them awoke with flames all around them and though badly burned managed to escape. Friday the charred remains of the third brother were found in the ruins. Eleven horses were burned to death. The boys had been smoking.

KILLS HIS SWEETHEART.

Michigan Man Then Ends His Own Life.

Detroit, Sept. 10.—Amos Prommeyer of Mount Clemens, Mich., Friday night shot and killed his sweetheart and himself when the young woman returned his ring and broke their engagement. The tragedy occurred at the home of the girl, Miss Annie Sienkiewicz, 82 Brandon avenue.

NO FIGHTING ON THURSDAY.

General Sakharoff Reports Ceasation of Hostilities.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—Lieutenant General Sakharoff telegraphs that there was no fighting during Sept. 8.

The late Miss Julia Moore, Sir John Moore's niece, like many very old people, was extremely proud of her age and lost no opportunity of showing it.

"What an exaltation of course!"

"See a pin and pick it up, through all the day you'll have good luck," he quoted.

MANEUVERS AT AN END

BLUE AND BROWN ARMIES CON-
CLUE MIMIC WARFARE AT
BULL RUN.

ONE VICTORY FOR EACH SIDE

ATTACKING FORCE CAME OUT
VICTORIOUS IN EACH OF THE ENGAGEMENTS.

Gainesville, Va., Sept. 10.—The second maneuver problem ceased at 9 o'clock Friday with General Bell, commanding the brown army, demolishing General Grant, commanding the blue army, east of Bull Run. This result awards victory to the attacking force in each of the two problems and makes General Grant the first victor and General Bell the second so far as results can be estimated without bullets.

The maneuvering and fighting Friday was far the most spectacular and exciting of the campaign. The first day of the second problem had developed nothing but a rear guard action on the part of General Grant, while General Bell had spent his time endeavoring to make a demonstration on the left wing or to the south of the blue line. During the night the situation was changed.

General Grant's position remained the same, behind or to the east of Bull Run. He withdrew his first brigade under General Wint, who had fought the rear guard action the day before to the famous stone bridge across Bull Run, along whose eastern shores the trenches dug by the Federal troops still remain and in which General Grant posted General Wint's line after it had been driven across the bridge with the loss of one brigade.

General Bell executed a magnificent night march and put a force across Bull Run at Sudley. His center made three charges at Stone bridge, the third being successful, putting the entire blue force at this point out of action. The force that crossed at Sudley struck Grant's line in the rear and the maneuver ended with General Bell's army victorious.

The militia will be paid today after the review, which it is to be held at Wellington.

FATL TRAIN WRECK.

Two Men Killed and Another Seriously Injured.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 10.—Two men entered the office of County Treasurer T. J. Chase Friday in broad daylight and while one of them covered Chase with a revolver, the other went through the safe, securing $14,000. They then locked Chase in the vault and made their escape. Chase was found three hours later by his wife and released. Several thousand dollars in gold in the safe was overlooked by the robbers. The sheriff and his deputies were at the fair grounds and all the city officers except the marshal were out of town at the time of the robbery. No trace of the robbers has been secured.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Sept. 10.—Two men were killed and another seriously injured in a wreck on the Southern railway between Dogwood and Wilton on the Birmingham and Selma division Friday. The dead are W. H. Cherry, engineer; Will Ivey, negro brakeman.

Fireman N. L. Snow, white, was dangerously injured.

The train was running thirty miles an hour when the engine jumped the track, turning completely over, crushing the engineer beneath it. Several other employees of the road are said to have been bruised but not seriously injured.
